WEST GERMANY [illegible]

Stamm, Walter [illegible]

Stamm, who first kept away from politics after his return to Germany, joined the BDJ and took charge of organizational questions. At one time it was planned to appoint him regional chairman for North Rhine-Westphalia or secretary general of the party, in case Erich should leave. It seems, however, that Stamm does not wish to play too public a role at this time and that he prefers to devote himself to former officers' circles. He was accused by the Berlin weekly Ring of working simultaneously for the BDJ of the East and for the "General Executive Committee of the National Socialist Underground Movement". Stamm attended the Meeting of the Deutsche Kongress at Bonn Sept 28 and 29. It has also been reported that Stamm, in collaboration with publisher Fritz Tietlow, plans to publish a political information bulletin.
